- PRESIDENT - BROTHER F. PATRICK ELLIS, F.S.C., Ph.D.

Brother Patrick Ellis was installed as President of La Salle College on January 1, 1977 and now has the honor of leading La Salle into a new era as a University.

A member of the Brothers of the Christian Schools since 1946, Brother Patrick first joined the La Salle staff in 1960 as a professor of English. He has been associated with La Salle since that time, except for a term as president of La Salle High School in Miami, FL from 1962-1964. He returned to Philadelphia in 1964, and was the Director of La Salle's Honors Program until 1969 when he was named Director of Development and Vice President of the Corporation.

A native of Baltimore, MD, Brother Patrick graduated from Calvert Hall College High School in 1946, received an A.B. degree in English from Catholic University in 1951, and earned his master's degree and doctorate in English from the University of Pennsylvania.

He first was assigned to the Philadelphia area in 1951 when he joined the staff at West Catholic High School for Boys. In the 10 years he was there he served as Chairman of the English Department and as Guidance Director.

Active in numerous national and local organizations, Brother Patrick is a member of the Board of Trustees of Manhattan College, St. Mary's College (Winona, MN), and St. John's College High School (Washington, DC).

He is Chairman of the Board of Directors of the 220-member Association of Catholic Colleges and Universities; President of the James A. Finnegan Foundation, which fosters state government internships; and Chairman of Philadelphia's Campus Boulevard Consortium, a cooperative organization of institutions located adjacent to La Salle.

Brother Patrick is also secretary-treasurer of the Pennsylvania Association of Colleges and Universities, and on the boards of the American Council on Education; the Greater Philadelphia First Corporation; Philadelphia's Urban Affairs Partnership; Friends of Independence Hall; and the Police Athletic League. He has been named to a second three-year term on the Philadelphia Diocesan Council of Managers.

Brother Patrick has authored numerous articles in educational publications, and conducted a "How to Read Great Books" series for the "University of the Air" on Philadelphia's WFIL-TV in 1961 and 1965. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, he was president of the Phi Beta Kappa Association of Philadelphia for two terms.

Brother Patrick has been an avid devotee of the arts all his life, and has performed in several productions over the years, the last being "Knickerbocker Holiday" at La Salle's Summer Theater in 1971. His sketches of local scenes frequently adorn his personal notes and Christmas cards. He has sung the National Anthem at a number of La Salle basketball games, and before four Philadelphia Phillies games at Veterans Stadium.

- DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS - BILL BRADSHAW

Bill Bradshaw has been a success in several fields, as a college and professional baseball player, college coach, and now as Director of Athletics at La Salle University.

A 1969 graduate of La Salle, Bradshaw was named Director of Athletics and Recreation at his alma mater in December, 1977.

Under his leadership, the La Salle athletic program has expanded to 22 varsity sports, championships in two conferences, and appearances in post-season championship competition in several sports. Last season, Explorer teams moved from the East Coast Conference, of which La Salle was a charter member, to the Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference and all new opponents and schedules. At the end of the school year, La Salle's men's and women's teams proved to be the best in the new conference, winning the Commissioner's Cup for overall athletic supremacy in MAAC competition, with both men and women winning their respective titles. Five teams won or tied for MAAC championships in 1983-1984, men's basketball, men's and women's swimming, soccer and volleyball.

This success after a major change in scheduling showed the solidity of La Salle's athletic programs under Bill Bradshaw. In addition, La Salle athletes maintained a graduation rate of 90%, a stronger testament to the overall program.

Bradshaw was a second baseman during his collegiate baseball days, captaining the 1969 La Salle team and finishing his career with a .415 batting average as a senior, and a .362 career average. He played minor league baseball in the Washington Senators/Texas Rangers chain, with a career .315 average before a broken ankle ended his playing career.

Before returning to La Salle, he earned a master's degree in guidance and counseling from Niagara University. He also coached the Purple Eagle baseball team for two years, leading the 1974 team to a school record 29 victories. While Bradshaw was residing in Niagara Falls, NY, of which he is a native, he also coached an American Legion team to the 1971 New York State Championship, featuring Rick Manning at shortstop, now an All-Star Milwaukee Brewers outfielder.

The 37-year-old Bradshaw is an active member of both the Eastern College Athletic Conference and the Philadelphia Big Five, and is a campus leader with several committees at La Salle. He lives in Wyndmoor, PA with his wife Elaine and two daughters, Lesley and Katie.

- ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR - KATHLEEN WEAR

Kathleen Wear has been La Salle's Assistant Athletic Director since 1977, and has been greatly responsible for the expansion of the women's athletic program to its current nine-sport, Division I status.

A 1969 graduate of West Chester State College, Kathy joined the La Salle staff as head field hockey coach in 1975. She remained with that program through 1979, building a team which would win the AIAW Division II National Championship in 1980. Since leaving the coaching ranks, she has been involved with all aspects of La Salle's athletic program, and serves as the Academic Moderator for Explorer athletes.

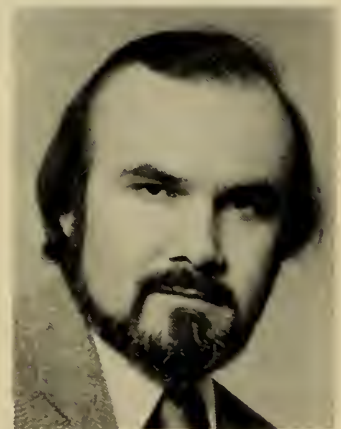

In addition to her La Salle duties, Kathy is also a member of the NCAA Council; the ECAC Men's Steering Committee and Chairman of the Awards Committee; and is chairman for Metro Atlantic Athletic Conference volleyball and softball championships for this season.

A native of South Jersey, she resides in Barrington, NJ, with two sons, John and Michael.

- HEAD COACH - BILL (SPEEDY) MORRIS

One of the most successful high school boys basketball coaches in the country, Speedy Morris is in his first season as head coach of women's basketball at La Salle.

Morris has coached boys basketball on all levels in the Philadelphia area since 1958. His reputation spread nationwide during his 14 years (1967-81) as head coach at Roman Catholic High School. His Roman teams won six Philadelphia Catholic League Championships, one Philadelphia City Championship, two National Catholic Tournament titles, four times won better than 30 games in a season, and compiled an overall record of 347-82.

Following his resignation from Roman Catholic in 1981, he was named head coach at William Penn Charter School in 1982. His two-year record in the Interacademic League was 40-14, and included a league championship in 1984. In 16 seasons as a varsity high school coach, Morris' teams had a 387-96 record, an average of better than 24 victories per season.

Morris was named Catholic League Coach of the Year four times, in 1969 (26-4, Catholic League champions), 1973 (24-6, League champions), 1974 (31-3, League and City champions) and 1978 (32-4, League champions). His other 30-win seasons were in 1979 (31-5) and 1980 (31-3), both teams also winning Catholic League titles. His teams won at least 24 games in each of his last nine seasons at Roman Catholic.

Morris is a native of Philadelphia, and resides in the city's Manayunk section, with his wife Margaret Mary and four children, Keith, 14, Brian, 13, Margaret Mary, 12 and Christopher, 5.

- ASSISTANT COACHES -

KATHY HEMSLEY

A 1978 graduate of St. Joseph's, Kathy Hemsley is in her fourth season as an assistant on the La Salle staff. A native of the Philadelphia area, she was an assistant woman's coach at Swarthmore, graduate assistant at Temple, and assistant at Bishop McDevitt High School before joining the La Salle staff. In addition to her duties with the basketball team, Kathy is also a certified athletic trainer, and has worked in that capacity with several area high schools and colleges, including La Salle.

RICH PRENDERGAST

Like Speedy Morris, Rich Prendergast is a veteran of the Philadelphia CYO and Catholic League high school system, having coached on all levels of competition. Unlike Speedy, he has experience in women's basketball, joining the La Salle staff following a successful four-season stint at Hallahan High School (77-34, two Catholic League playoff appearances). A 1960 graduate of La Salle, Prendergast was a second baseman on the first Explorer baseball team coached by current head coach Gene McDonnell.

MARGE MANNION

Also in her fourth season at La Salle, Marge has also been assistant field hockey coach, and had an 11-11 record as interim head coach during the fall of 1982. A 1979 graduate of Immaculata College, Marge coached both field hockey and basketball at Paul VI High School in South Jersey before joining the Exploere staff.

- LA SALLE UNIVERSITY -

On May 24, 1984, Governor Dick Thornburgh of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania officially granted University status to La Salle College.

The name La Salle University may take some time getting used to, but the institution will continue to serve the community as it has since its founding in 1863.

"As our destiny is in our own hands, there is every reason to be confident that we can retain and enhance our emphasis on the excellent teaching of undergraduates and on the relaxed accessibility of faculty and administrators to students," said La Salle President Brother Patrick Ellis. "Class size, activities, availability of computers and the like should not change except for the better."

Founded by the Brothers of Christian schools, La Salle is named for St. John Baptist de La Salle, founder of the Christian Brothers. The institution which began as a one-building academy in center city Philadelphia is now a 78-acre, 36-building campus in Philadelphia's Germantown section.

The La Salle day and evening faculty numbers 212 with degree programs offered in Arts, Science and Business. With a student-faculty ratio of 16-to-1 and an average class size of 21, students can be assured of as much personal guidance as needed from faculty members. This commitment to the individual has always been a major tenet of the Christian Brothers' goals for La Salle.

Among the major buildings on campus are the David Leo Lawrence Memorial Library; the Roland Holroyd Science Center with facilities for study and research in Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Physics, and Psychology; the Olney Hall classroom building; and the College Union which houses offices for most student activities and clubs and is the main meeting place on campus.

The athletic department is housed in Hayman Hall. The facility includes the 1700-seat Joseph Kirk Natatorium, three regulation-sized basketball courts, a 12 laps/mile suspended running track, weight training and exercise areas, a sauna, squash courts and a medical training area.

La Salle students come from 200 public and private schools in 30 states, and 20 countries. The dormitories house more than 1100 students in 11 residence halls and two apartment complexes. More than 75% of the student body goes on to graduate study, with more than 1000 degrees conferred annually on day and evening division seniors.

La Salle students have been awarded 56 Fulbright grants since 1970, a total exceeded by only one other institution in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. According to a recent survey, La Salle ranked in the top 6% nationally among private undergraduate institutions originating Ph.D.'s (58th of 943 colleges and universities).

"I am certain that as a university, La Salle not only will continue, but expand, that tradition of excellence," said Governor Thornburgh at the time of last May 24.

It is a tradition that is being renewed in the first year of La Salle University.
